

2

Camping sites in South Australia suitable for Joey Scouts

Details are given of how to contact each site. However, it is not practical to print telephone numbers as they may be out of date by the time you want to contact a facility.

Adelaide Shores Caravan Park (West Beach)

Short walk to the beach. Variety of accommodation – the Bunkhouse is an excellent facility for Joey Scouts

Contact: See Adelaide telephone directory for current contact numbers

Goolwa Scout Hall

Huge variety of activities in the local and surrounding areas
Hall, showers, toilet, kitchen, camping for tents only

Contact: Scout HQ for current contact person and telephone number

Normanville Beach Caravan Park

Beach location south of Adelaide. Large camp kitchen with all modern facilities
Bunk style accommodation also available

Contact: Local telephone directory

Roonka

Scout owned facility near Blanchetown. Water activities, variety of accommodation
Excellent facilities

Contact: See Scouting Statewide magazine for current contact telephone numbers

Woodhouse Activity Centre

Scout owned facility near Piccadilly in the Adelaide hills
Offering a variety of accommodation with a huge range of activity opportunities

Contact: Scouting Statewide or Adelaide telephone directory for telephone numbers

YMCA

Sir Mark Oliphant Conservation Park, Scott Creek Rd, Scott Creek (Adelaide Hills area)
Lots of local walking trails. Bunk style accommodation

Excellent facilities - large fully equipped kitchen, dining room, activity room

Contact: YMCA, Flinders Street, Adelaide

Other possible campsites

- Arbury Park, near Bridgewater
- Douglas Scrub Girl Guides Camp, McLaren Flat (Guide owned)
- Glenbarr, near Strathalbyn
- Point Sturt Youth Centre, outside Milang
- Clayton Bay Camp, between Milang and Goolwa
- Armstrong Airfield, near Blanchetown and very close to Roonka (Scout owned)
- Napperby Scout Camp, near Port Pirie (Scout owned)
- Nyroca, near Port Lincoln (Scout run)

Contacts: Scout HQ/Guide HQ where appropriate, or check the relevant telephone directory